

Pricing

Simple pricing while the benchmark is being built — then clear paths for teams and search firms.

Honest framing: Qortex is a professional thinking benchmark, not an IQ test. Founding partners help shape the product. Prices below are a working draft for discussion — not live site copy until confirmed.

How to choose

If you are...	Start with	Why
Early adopter who wants influence	Founding Partner	Lowest lifetime price; help build the benchmark
Hiring / People team inside one company	Team	Ongoing assessments for senior roles & development
Search firm placing senior talent	Search & Consultancy	One licence, many clients; highest leverage

Optional add-ons (later)

- Extra assessment packs — when teams exceed allowance
- AI Adaptability Thinking module — when that layer ships
- Enterprise — custom security, SSO, volume (quote)

What we won't do early

- Race-to-the-bottom per-candidate pricing
- Complex 8-tier menus
- Enterprise psychometrics pricing before the evidence exists
